IRISES

Season of 1932

The Bearded Iris still holds the right of way as the most colorful of all flowers, its country-wide popularity increasing each year as the army of hybridizers continues to bring forth new and intriguing combinations of size, form and color.

Good, strong rhizomes, unexcelled in quality, with a fine root system, will be sent, properly labeled and packed, insuring their starting into vigorous growth when planted. Shipments will be made from about July 5th to November 1st, as customers desire.

All varieties are true to name. Satisfactory adjustments will be made on any proving otherwise.

Prices quoted are prepaid on orders of $2.00 and over. Under $2.00, add 25 cents for postage.

DISCOUNTS: Except on collections and varieties marked net, the following discounts are allowed: On orders of $10.00 to $25.00 discount 10% ; orders of $25.00 to $50.00 discount 15% ; orders over $50.00 discount 20%.

RATINGS: On the basis of 100 for perfection, ratings voted by members of the American Iris Society precede names of varieties. The first number is the exhibition rating, second number the garden rating. Varieties without ratings are those introduced since the symposium was made.

COLLECTIONS: You will find exceptional values in the collections listed on page 5.

BULBOUS IRIS

(Beardless)

The following list comprises the three main types, viz: Dutch, Spanish, and English. The flowers are of heavy substance and very fine for cutting. The Dutch bloom first, starting about the time Darwin Tulips are through; Spanish follow next, with the English last, the period of bloom covering six to eight weeks. Plant in the fall, 3 to 4 inches deep. After freezing weather cover with coarse litter to prevent heaving.
